

ASSET LIMITS

Your assets (whole estate) on July 1 cannot exceed a specified limit. Each clause has a different limit.

Whole estate means all assets to which you have legal title and access as sole, joint owner or trustee that contribute to your total worth. The value of your cemetery plots, apparel and household furniture and effects located in your domicile is not included in the calculation of your whole estate.

In addition, depending on the clause, some of the value of your domicile and the unpaid mortgage balance is not included, but the part of your domicile over a certain number of units may be included.

Your allowable whole estate can range from $20,000 (Clause 17) to $68,701.27 (Clauses 17C, 17C ½ and 17D). It may increase annually by the CPI determined by the DOR each year, if the legislative body has voted, subjected to local charter, to accept this local option.

TAXPAYER'S GUIDE TO REAL ESTATE TAX EXEMPTIONS IN HOPEDALE

CLAUSE 17D

Surviving Spouse
(Husband or Wife)

Minor Child
(of a Deceased Parent)

Elderly Person

INTRODUCTION

A tax exemption is a discharge from the obligation to pay all or a portion of a tax. Exemptions are conferred by the Legislature on particular categories of persons or property.

Clauses 17, 17C, 17C½ and 17D of Section 5 of Chapter 59 provide exemptions to: (1) seniors (2) surviving spouses and (3) minor children with a deceased parent, who meet specific ownership, occupancy, and asset requirements. Seniors 70 or older may, alternatively, qualify for an exemption under Clauses 41, 4B, 41C or 41C½, which provide a higher benefit, but eligibility requirements are stricter.

Cities and towns may give tax exemptions to some individuals as defined by state law. An exemption discharges the taxpayer from legal obligation to pay all or a portion of the tax. Exemptions are found in various clauses of Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 59, Section 5 (M.G.L. c. 59 § 5).

The Clause most recently accepted, establishes eligibility rules. If a city or town has not so voted, Clause 17 prevails.

EXEMPTION AMOUNTS

$300.58 – The amount may increase annually up to the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index (CPI), as determined by the DOR each year, if the legislative body has voted, subject to local charter, to accept this local option.

Hopedale adjust the assistance amount annually by COLA.
